TRAIL SENSE AND SAFETY

Trail Markings Official trails are marked by colored blazes on posts and trees. For your safety and habitat protection, please stay on the trails and don't alter trail markings or create new trails.

Preparations Consider bringing water, snacks, sunscreen, insect repellent, and a hat. Dress for the weather. Tell someone where you plan to go and when you expect to return.

Hunting Sections are open to hunting. Bright orange clothing is recommended during hunting season.

Pets All pets must be on a leash (maximum 6 feet) and under the physical control of the owner. Please clean up after your pets.

Carry-in/Carry-out Help keep the forest clean and beautiful by carrying out your trash.

Bear Aware Bears are active in this area. Don't approach them. Bear sightings should be reported to State Park Police (1-877-927-6337) or to the forest office.

Bikers Follow the IMBA "Rules of the Trail" guidelines for trail etiquette and yield appropriately. Helmets are required by law for children under 17 and recommended for all riders.

TRAILS OF ### RAMAPO MOUNTAIN STATE FOREST

Ramapo Mountain State Forest includes 14 official trails, totaling more than 28 miles. Trails vary in length from less than 1 mile to 10 miles and many trails continue beyond Ramapo Mountain State Forest into adjacent County and State lands. Many multi-use trails are suitable for hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding, and cross country skiing. Please obey all designated uses of the trails posted at trailheads and trail crossings.

Cannonball Trail

Red • 6 miles (in Ramapo) • Multi-use

Moderate • Primary trail through center of forest

Trailhead Numerous points of entry throughout park. Cannonball Trail runs through the forest from south to north. From the southern boundary of the forest, the trail crosses I-287 and continues north along the western shoreline of Ramapo Lake. Towards the middle of the forest, the trail crosses Skyline Drive and joins with Hoeflerlin Memorial Trail. At the northern end, the trail passes to the west of Cannonball Lake and through an old camp with cabins and lodges. Cannonball Trail ends as it joins with Shore Trail in Ringwood State Park.

Castle Point Trail

White • 1 mile • Hiking

Moderate • Trail to Van Slyke Castle ruins

Trailhead Deer Ledge Road or north end of Ramapo Lake. Castle Point Trail travels along a short ridgeline with ruins of a stone mansion overlooking Ramapo Lake. The castle, known as Foxcroft or the Van Slyke Castle, was the family home of William Porter. It was built in 1910 and occupied until 1940, when it fell into ruin.

Erskine Connector Trail

Blue • 0.5 miles (in Ramapo) • Multi-use

Easy to moderate • Connects major forest trails

Trailhead Ringwood-Ramapo or Cannonball Trail. Erskine Connector Trail connects the Ringwood-Ramapo Trail with the Cannonball Trail, crossing ridgelines, then running south alongside a small lake.

Hoeflerlin Memorial Trail

Yellow • 6.5 miles (in Ramapo) • Multi-use

Moderate • Longest trail through forest

Trailhead Numerous entry points throughout forest. Hoeflerlin Memorial Trail is the longest trail through Ramapo Mountain State Forest. It runs along a major ridge line between the Wanaque Reservoir (to the west) and the Ramapo River (to the east). Hoeflerlin Memorial Trail also serves as a primary travel corridor with connections to many other trails in the forest and in Ringwood State Park.

Indian Rock Trail

Red & white • 0.3 miles (in Ramapo) • Hiking

Moderate • Short connector trail from the west

Trailhead Parking area at Back Beach Park. Indian Rock Trail leaves Back Beach Park, a Wanaque Borough park, and heads southwest, crossing to the east side of the Wanaque River and joining with Cannonball Trail south of Ramapo Lake.

Lookout Trail

Red • 1.8 miles • Hiking

Easy to moderate • Short loop around LeGrande Hill

Trailhead Hoeflerlin Memorial Trail south of the spillway of Ramapo Lake. Lookout Trail is a short loop trail southeast of Ramapo Lake. The trail follows a creek then winds through hillsides above the Ramapo River.

MacEvoy Trail

Blue • 2.5 miles • Hiking

Moderate • Trail to Ramapo Lake and west side of forest

Trailhead Lower parking area on Skyline Drive. MacEvoy Trail heads west, climbing a steep and rocky creek that comes from Ramapo Lake. The trail is two- to four-feet wide with many stepped rocks. The trail levels out after 0.25 miles and winds through forested ridges. As the trail reaches the lake, it becomes a gravel road along the lakeshore and continues north-east to Wolfe Drive on the west side of forest.

Matapan Rock Trail

Red • 0.3 miles (in Ramapo) • Hiking

Easy • Short trail leading to overlook

Trailhead Hoeflerlin Memorial and Cannonball Trail. In Ramapo, Matapan Rock Trail begins from the shared section of Hoeflerlin and Cannonball Trails approximately one mile north of the upper Ramapo parking area on Skyline Drive. The trail to the west travels a short distance to large rock slabs overlooking Skyline Drive.

Ringwood-Ramapo Trail

Red • 3.2 miles (in Ramapo) • Multi-use

Moderate • Long connector trail to Ringwood State Park

Trailhead Hoeflerlin Memorial Trail. Ringwood-Ramapo Trail leads from the northern portion of Ramapo Mountain to Ringwood Manor. The section of trail within Ramapo Mountain State Forest is approximately 3.2 miles and follows a mix of single-track and forest roads.

Schuber Trail

Orange • 0.4 miles • Hiking

Easy • Trail leads to Lake Tamarack

Trailhead East side of upper parking area on Skyline Drive. Schuber Trail heads northeast and downhill through forested hillsides into the drainage area of Lake Tamarack. Schuber Trail continues into Ramapo Valley County Reservation.

Skyline Connector Trail

Red & white • 0.25 miles • Multi-use

Easy • Short and rocky single-track

Trailhead Upper parking area on Skyline Drive. Skyline Connector Trail serves as a short connector trail joining the upper Ramapo parking lot on Skyline Drive with Cannonball Trail on the east side of Deer Ledge Road.
